

Monday 16th July 2018: Looking back

12:30 Registration and Lunch

13:20	Welcome	Chris Watson
13:30	Liver tolerance and the start of the programme	Sir Roy Calne
14:10	Looking after the liver: The hepatology registrar's tale	James Neuberger
14:30	48 hours: a weekend's tale	Bob Greatorex
14:50	Organising it all: the coordinator's tale	Sally Taber
15:10	The paediatric programme: The paediatrician's tale	Nick Barnes
15:30	Tea
16:00	The view from the top end: the anaesthetist's tale	Mike Lindop
16:20	Heart lung liver transplantation: the cardiac surgeon's tale	John Wallwork
16:40	The diseases of the first 50 years: the hepatologist's tale	Mike Allison
17:00	Development of ITU: the intensivists tale	Kevin Gunning
17:20	Changing role of imaging: the radiologist's tale	David Lomas
17:40	A view from under the microscope: the pathologist's tale	Derek Wight
18:00	Close of day
19:30	Dinner

Tuesday 17th July 2018. Looking forwards

8:30 Coffee and registration

Now and then.

09:00 Welcome

09:05 New challenges in hepatology and liver transplantation Roger Williams

09:40 The liver donor: then and now Chris Watson

10:00 Liver Preservation – emerging solutions Peter Friend

10.20 Coffee Break

Transplantation for Liver Failure

11:00 Selection Criteria and management of Acute Liver Failure Will Bernal

11:20 Peri-operative risk assessment John Klinck

11:40 The evolution of liver allocation in the UK Alexander Gimson

12:00 Long-term Management and Co-morbidity John O’Grady

12:20 Multivisceral transplantation Andy Butler

12:40 Lunch Break

13:40 New Approaches – Looking Ahead

13:40 Tolerance and immunosuppressive drug withdrawal Alberto Sanchez-Fueyo

14:00 Hepatocyte replacement and transplantation Tamir Rashid

14:20 Cholangiocyte replacement Fotis Sampaziotis

14:40 The future Sir Roy Calne

15:00 Tea on the lawn with patients